Election workers are an essential part of our democratic system. Without election workers, we could not hold elections. The hours are long (a 14-hour day at the least), the pay is modest but the rewards are great!

- Be able to read and write
- Be able to carry out a poll official's duties with acceptable skill
- Report to your assigned location at 6:00 AM and remain until you are excused by the Presiding Judge
- Attend Mandatory Election School
- Take an Oath of Office
- Not be a candidate, law officer or close relative (spouse, domestic, partner, parent, child, sibling or in-law) of a candidate
- ➤ Note: County residents who are 16 or 17 years old, US citizens and meet all but the first condition above may serve as poll officials.
